

Church and Belief in the Middle Ages: Popes, Saints, and Crusaders (Crossing Boundaries: Turku Medieval and Early Modern Studies)

The roles of popes, saints, and crusaders were inextricably intertwined in the Middle Ages: papal administration was fundamental in the making and promulgating of new saints and in financing crusades, while crusaders used saints as propaganda to back up the authority of popes, and even occasionally they ended up being sanctified. Yet current scholarship rarely treats these three components of medieval faith together. This book remedies that by bringing together scholars to consider the links among the three and the ways that understanding them can help us build a more complete picture of the working of the church and Christianity in the Middle Ages.

Abravanel's World of Torah, upon completion, will comprise a multi-volume set of Don Yitzchak Abravanel's commentary to the Five Books of Moses. This series is not a linear translation but rather a methodical, structured interpretation of Abravanel's commentary. It is designed to be read and studied independently or can be used as an excellent guide and helpful companion to the Hebrew original.

Abravanel's World of Torah: Bereshit was originally published by Torah Renaissance Press in 2012. This was followed by a Second Printing (2nd Ed.) in 2013 and a Third Printing in 2014.

Abravanel's World of Torah: Shemot Volume I covers the first six parshiyot in Sefer Shemot. This volume features a systematic translation of Abravanel's classic commentary beginning with Parashat Shemot until the end of Parashat Mishpatim, plus much more.

Abravanel's World of Torah: Shemot Volume II concludes Sefer Shemot. It features an in depth analysis of the Mishkan (Tabernacle), the Thirteen Attributes, and much more.

Vayikra is due out in the Spring of 2017.
