

Encyclopedia of World Religions Set, 6-Volumes (Facts on File Library of Religion and Mythology)

The Encyclopedia of World Religions set explores the major religions of the world, emphasizing the living faiths and their historical and social backgrounds. Each volume was written by an expert in the field, and then reviewed and approved by series editor J. Gordon Melton. Ideal for high school and junior college students, these authoritative references are accessible enough to be of use to the general reader as well as the serious scholar. Each volume includes approximately 600 A-to-Z entries that provide easy access to the theological concepts, personalities, historical events, institutions, and movements that helped shape the history of each religion and the way it is practiced today. Fascinating introductions by each author place the religion in context, and further readings, a bibliography, an index, and approximately 80 black-and-white photographs complete these invaluable resources.

Abravanel's World of Torah, upon completion, will comprise a multi-volume set of Don Yitzchak Abravanel's commentary to the Five Books of Moses. This series is not a linear translation but rather a methodical, structured interpretation of Abravanel's commentary. It is designed to be read and studied independently or can be used as an excellent guide and helpful companion to the Hebrew original.

Abravanel's World of Torah: Bereshit was originally published by Torah Renaissance Press in 2012. This was followed by a Second Printing (2nd Ed.) in 2013 and a Third Printing in 2014.

Abravanel's World of Torah: Shemot Volume I covers the first six parshiyot in Sefer Shemot. This volume features a systematic translation of Abravanel's classic commentary beginning with Parashat Shemot until the end of Parashat Mishpatim, plus much more.

Abravanel's World of Torah: Shemot Volume II concludes Sefer Shemot. It features an in depth analysis of the Mishkan (Tabernacle), the Thirteen Attributes, and much more.

Vayikra is due out in the Spring of 2017.
